THURSDAY EVENING, JULY 14.

A MUSIC BOX IN HER BUSTLE.-Said a Custom-house inspector the other day to a reporter of the El Paso, Texas, Inter-Repubcan: Very few people think it is wrong to smuggle, and if they can manage to slip a few little trinkets over the line unobserved they have no hesitancy in doing so. About a week ago there was a little excursion party in Paso del Norte, Mexico, and I kept a pretty sharp lookout; but one of the ladies would have passed almost with my eyes shut she was such a pretty girl and had such an innocent, babyish face. I had just asked her if she had any dutiable articles, and she had just said. "Oh, no, sir," when I heard a peculiar muffled and whirring sound, and then something tingling out the old tune, "My Dream of Love is O'er." It seemed to come from under her skirts, and then I re-membered hearing of a clock striking once in a woman's bustle, and tumbled to the situation. You see, that innocent little thing had bought a tiny music-box in a case covered with filigree work, and somebody had suggested that she hide it under her I can't say exactly how she attached it to her, but I know that she accidentally touched some spring or some-thing and set the thing agoing. It kept right on playing that tune until she got it out, and then began to reel off "The Blue Alsatian Mountains." I thought the woman would faint, and I heard her remark to a friend that she would as soon think of packing around a clock-work internal machine as to try the dodge on again.

KNEW ALL ABOUT PETER.-It was at a Sunday School exhibition, and the superintendent was showing off the results of his labors. During the exercises he asked the children who could tell bim anything about Peter. No one answered. The question was repeated several times till finally a lit-tie girl held up her hand. "Well, my dear," said the superintendent, "that's right. I am glad to see there is one little girl who will put these large boys and girls to shame."
The little girl came forward to the platform, and was told to tell the sudience what she knew of Peter. She put her finger in her mouth, and, looking very smiling, said :

"Peter, Peter, pumpkin eater, Had a wife and couldn't keep her, Put her in a pumpkin shell, And there he kept her very well."

Amid the roar that followed, she hurried galy to her seat .- Our Dumb Animals.

Alexandria Gazette.

The GAZETTE is now the oldest paper in Ladies',Gents' & Children's Furn'g, Goods, the State, and with few exceptions the oldest in the country, and its usefulness has been demonstrated and appreciated during the RIGHTY-SEVEN YEARS of its existence. In its columns has always been found a mirror of passing events, and the careful chronicling of the history of what is going on in the Machinist, Iron and Brass Founder world has ever been its aim. It is always welcomed in the household, while in the (OLD DOMINION WORKS)

The GAZETTE has better facilities for ob-Tools, Mill Picks, Facing Hammers, and all kinds taining news than any paper outside of the national capital. Situated as it is so close to the great centre of news, it enjoys daily the benefit of the Associated Press dispatches from every part of the world; hence its patrons can read from its columns in the evening what has transpired that day in every portion of our own domain as well as from every part of the habitable globe. Consequently it is an every day occurrence for the GAZETTE to publish telegrams from the various European capitals twelve and fifteen hours earlier than the morning pa-

Another feature that serves to make the GAZETTE a great desideratum with mer chants is its afternoon market reports from New York, Baltimore, Chicago and other All Kinds of Book and Job Printing centres.

The local department furnishes a full and complete history of everything that occurs n and near the city, and this feature will.

Correspondence from Washington, Richmond and every section of the State, is published regularly, and all events of interest occurring within the bounds of the Commonwealth are to be found in the columns of the GAZETTE.

The GAZETTE's circulation is steadily in creasing, especially among people who consult its advertising columns before purchasing. That this is self-evident may be inferred from the fact that a large country edition-nearly as large as the daily-is sent all over this section of country three times a week, and is read by thousands, most of whom send here or to contiguous cities to make purchases. The advantages of advertising in the GAZETTE are, therefore, ap-
